

Imagine a summer's day on which millions of us, throughout the UK, have lunch together. The food and entertainment we have grown, cooked or created ourselves.

A day to break bread with our neighbours, to put a smile on Britain's face.

It's called The Big Lunch. The best part of a million people did it last year. They loved it and now they know each other better.

Will you join us on Sunday 18th July for The CH64 Big Lunch?
Stanney Fields Park, Neston. 12 noon – 4pm.

You are warmly invited to the first

CH64 Big Lunch

on Sunday 18th July

The Big What

- A bring-your-own, open-air party by the people, for the people of CH64
- Get together to meet, greet, share, sing, dance, play games & laugh for no reason other than we all need to.
- On Offer & all for free: co-ordinated games between 1-3pm; Den-building and Cycle Projects – try out some specially adapted bikes, including one that makes smoothies!
- Bring your own lunch, musical instruments, stories, games & songs.

The Big Who

- It's for you, him, her, them, us, everyone we know and don't know but should.

The Big Where & When

- Come rain or shine – Stanney Fields Park, Neston, CH64 9PE. Sunday, 18th July, 12noon-4pm.

For more information telephone

The Big Why

- To show how local people can change a neighbourhood for good, forever.
- To conquer our natural shyness, to open our doors & minds & look out for one another the way we used to.
- To share stories & skills so we all end up richer in every sense.
- To discover common ground across age, class, faith & race.

The Big How

- Just turn up on the day with your own lunch, blankets, chairs, tables, gazebos, family & friends.
